

INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

RELATIONS BETWEEN EUROPE, LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN: A MEETING SPACE

Guadalupe (Cáceres) 18, 19 and 20 March 2021

The European and Ibero-American Academy of Yuste Foundation, the University of Extremadura (UEx) and the Centre for Ibero-American Studies of the Rey Juan Carlos University (CEIB-URJC) intend to convene the International Congress “Relations Between Europe, Latin America and the Caribbean: A Meeting Space”, to be held in Guadalupe (Cáceres) on 18, 19 and 20 March 2021.

The objectives of this Congress are:

To delve into the interaction that has been taking place between Europe and America for five centuries.

To prioritise in the investigations that have studied this relationship, which has been shaping a historical reality in both spaces, confirmed in a common cultural and material heritage in many common cases.

To make progress in studies on migratory flows between Extremadura, Europe and America.

To propose a space for debate based on the fundamental premise of the participation of young researchers in the field of Ibero-American history as a space for international historical relations.
